

'SOLITUDE', BLACK ROCK ST. MICHAEL, BARBADOS

Saint Michael, Barbados

This 2,400.0 sq. ft. unfurnished two storied traditional Barbadian coral stone house was constructed in 1945 and is in need of some repairs and upgrading. The property comprises on the main first floor a typical front entry porch/patio, formal living and dining room featuring mahogany book shelves, doors, doors frames, floors, and display cabinet, 2 bedrooms, one large bathroom, and a storage area. The ground floor comprises of 2 large bedrooms, a sitting room, a dining room, a kitchen and bathroom. The 1,440.0 sq. ft. attached warehouse/office, with bathroom facilities is 80% completed, and has its own private entrance at the east side of the building.

The fully fenced in 21,780.0 sq. ft. property benefits from two entrances. The main entrance to the property is via Brighton Road to the north and Ashdeane Village to the South. It can be used for a distribution business with ample space at the south end from Ashdeane Village entrance for containers, staff or other parking etc.

It is located on Brighton Road, obliquely opposite to the Carlton Supermarket Complex. Brighton is a fast developing commercial center, and this property with its ability for multipurpose usage should be of interest, when renovated and upgraded, to most small businesses, medical offices, nurseries, commercial agencies etc. etc. It is in close proximity to the Blackrock Main Road, Spring Garden Highway, and the Bridgetown Port.
