

RAFEEN, THE GARRISON

Saint Michael, Barbados

This property is QUARANTINE APPROVED..

This one of a kind Heritage property is located in the Garrison area on the south coast of the island.

With three spacious air conditioned bedrooms and two bathrooms with showers, this Historic gem offers a large family all the space and comforts needed for a wonderful island holiday.

The front patio surrounded by large trees and shrubs looks onto the race track of the Savannah and is a wonderful spot to enjoy early morning tea of coffee.

The super large living and dining room is the perfect place for families or friends to relax, read a book or catch up watch TV .

Apart from the many special antiques found throughout the house , the ten seater dining table is simply fabulous.

In between the three bedrooms is a large foyer which leads to the open concept kitchen with all modern appliances.

The kitchen has a view of the pool area and deck and there is also space for dining just off the kitchen.

Rafeen offers a very quiet and relaxing environment . It's calming and peaceful effect has been experienced by many of our visitors along with the Green Monkey who traverse along the fence in early mornings and later afternoons.

For those who want to keep up on their fitness routine, the track around the Savannah is the perfect place for walks or runs with a short distance to The Cafe at George Washington House where you can have one of the most delicious breakfast on the island.
