

CASTLE GRANT PLANTATION

 Saint Joseph, Barbados

The property known as Castle Grant is really a unique property comprised of the world renowned Hunted's Gardens, the old Manager's House, converted stables, a cottage and a staff house. The manager's house is a traditional Plantation style home which consists of 4 bedrooms and 4 bathrooms on two floors with a large verandah overlooking the grounds. Upstairs is a lovely kitchen with appliances, sitting room and large terrace which spans the width of the sitting room and kitchen. The stables have been converted to a 2 bedroom 2 bathroom house, the cottage features 2 bedrooms and 1 bathroom and the staff house also features 2 bedrooms and 1 bathroom. All 3 structures are separate and self-contained. To the East there's a stunning view of Barbados' East Coast and the Atlantic Ocean beyond. Furthermore, the property at Castle Grant features Barbados' most fabulous sunken garden which has become something of a local attraction.

Located away from it all, Castle Grant is an easy, un-congested drive to all central locations, amenities and luxuries. This property is a tropical Eden sure to take your breath, and your troubles, away.
