

34 PALM CRESCENT FORTESCUE

 Saint Philip, Barbados

This neighborhood within Fortescue encourages family living, tranquility and active communities and this property is surrounded by all these attributes. It is located on a common road, surrounded by lovely homes and can be accessed through many avenues.

The home is partially enclosed by a guard wall and is set back on the lot, an ideal outdoor space for entertaining and relaxation.

The lengthy driveway and garage can accommodate about 4 cars. The home's primary access points are granted through the garage or the open living and dining rooms. The front Porch spans the width of the property and makes it easy to maneuver into the property.

Through the living and dining rooms, the flow continues through the to the kitchen where there is ample storage and counter space. On this ground floor there are 2 spacious bedrooms and 1 bathroom, laundry room and open space under the stairwell.

Upon climbing the stairs, there is the width and sturdy feel of the balustrade and on the landing, it reveals an expansive room that can be utilized as a TV room or simply a lounge. Two bedrooms and bathroom are positioned on the eastern side of the property and the western wing has a second Kitchen, entertainment room and 2 patios.
