

BUCKS, ST THOMAS

Saint Thomas, Barbados

Sitting on 2 acres of land this secluded home is perfectly located for an escape into the countryside. With an attractive landscape one cannot help but to bask in the tranquility that fills the entire estate. Though, this hidden gem may be tucked away, there is still easy access to amenities from city living such as the commercial hub of Warrens is simply 5 mins away, while Highway 2A is a 1-minute drive which expands to easy access to the luxury West of the island.

With the outdoor patio owners are privileged to wallow on warm days as one soaks in the rays before indulging in soaking in the cool water as a dip will be enticing from the pool. As the property is fully enclosed owners welcome the additional touch of security as there is complete privacy provided.

The home consists of 3 bedrooms and 3.5 bathrooms with a beautiful large kitchen. As the home is designed ideally for relaxing as there are two living areas with one having the option to be converted into a game/theatre room while the main living room is perfect hosting as it opens to the impressive backyard with its stunning views. The master bedroom is tucked away on the first level with its his and hers bathroom as owners are engulf in this large space which provides extra privacy.

The home itself is impressive as it filled with a sense of calmness and serenity, this is the perfect investment to make as one home or even a business endeavors as it can be used for long term rentals.
