

ATLANTIC PARK, TRANQUILITY

 Saint Joseph, Barbados

At Tranquility, relax to the soothing roar of the Atlantic Ocean caused by the waves with white surf as they crash onto the infamous Cattlewash beach.

Set on a hill, you are guaranteed breathtaking and serene views from all sides of this wonderful villa. Enjoy the constant cross sectional breezes as you sip on cocktails on the expansive patio. Sunbathing, soaking in the tidal rock pools and even rock climbing are all on the beach which is just a 5-minute walk down the hill. Soup Bowl, considered one of the best breaks by many international surfers, is just a 5 minute drive over the hill in to Bathsheba.

Built in 2006, this property occupies a 9,620 sq. ft. plot of gently sloping land, and comprises two self-contained apartments. The ground floor apartment is available for long term rentals. This floor has 10.5-ft high greenheart wood ceilings and porcelain tiled floors. On this level are four bedrooms and three bathrooms, two of which are en-suite, with an open concept living/dining area and kitchen with two French doors that open onto the large patio.

All bedrooms have built-in dressers and closets and all rooms have quiet ceiling fans.

The house is equipped with two 80-gallon solar tanks, a 1000-gallon water tank and 600-gallon rainwater tank. Discretely placed cameras allow for security monitoring should this be desired. There is also a large parking area.

Note utilities not included.
