

HOLDERS, ST. JOHN'S PLAIN

 Saint James, Barbados

Distinctive and striking, this contemporary family home is situated on an elevated plot in a most desirable west coast location. Walking distance to the Holders Polo field, close to beaches and the historic area of Hometown, home to many fine dining restaurants and bars, nearby shopping, golf courses and so much more.

Enter the property through a spacious entrance hall with cloakroom and adjoining study. Three air conditioned bedrooms can be found to the right, the master having ensuite bathroom, walk-in closet and private patio, remaining two bedrooms share a bathroom and both have fitted wardrobes. Split level living and dining rooms to the left feature french windows that lead out to a compact balcony to the front and a large covered terrace to the rear which offers a lush tropical view over the manicured grounds and pristine pool. Additional highlights include Cathedral pine ceilings throughout, air conditioning in all rooms and a large lower level space consisting of a utility room, extra large living area plus patio and a bedroom complete with bathroom offering huge potential for conversion into self contained apartment, guest accommodation or games room with access to pool area.

A delightful property with many charms offering the opportunity to experience tropical living in a quiet serene location yet minutes away from the spirit and heart of the pristine and popular west coast.
