

INCH MARLOW LOT 1

Christ Church, Barbados

Located not far from the Oistins town in Christ Church Barbados, this Barbadian home is ripe for some minor upgrades and is nestled at the end of a quiet cul-de-sac in a small, friendly neighborhood. This single-level bungalow offers a comfortable and breezy living experience. Fully enclosed for privacy and security, the home features a spacious carport and a cozy entry patio that welcomes you inside.

Step into the large open-plan living, dining, and kitchen area, which is outfitted with wooden cabinets and solid countertops. The space is designed for easy entertaining and everyday convenience. A laundry nook is thoughtfully tucked away for added functionality, which also opens to the carport. The home boasts three well-sized bedrooms, with two sharing a generous bathroom, while the primary bedroom enjoys the comfort of its own en-suite.

With numerous windows throughout, the house is bathed in natural light and enjoys refreshing island breezes. Security grills are installed for added peace of mind. Conveniently located near Mike's Mini Mart, Buffy's Bar, and bus routes and just a short drive from the Silver Rock beach known for kite surfing and the Silver Sands recreation area, this home offers the perfect blend of tranquility and accessibility.
